ILA INQUIRER

INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE ACADEMY OF WASHINGTON D.C

September - December 2019

A LOT HAS HAPPENED AT ILA!

Welcome to The Inquirer, ILA's quarterly newsletter that highlights events and news.

HOLIDAY CELEBRATIONS / ILA ACTIVITES AND EXCURSIONS / NEW WORKSHOPS

IT'S A SPOOKY HALLOWEEN

If you have been following our newsletters - then you must know that ILA is a huge fan of celebrating holidays with our students. Studying abroad is more than just sitting in classrooms learning a language, its about experience culture and local customs.

Because of this reason, we love going all out for holidays and showing our student show americans celebrate. These actives spark great conversation and give students the opportunity to practice their English language skills in a informal way! What better way to practice conversation English skills than over costumes and candy!

ACTIVITES

FUN ACTIVITES + LANGUAGE LEARNING = ILA!

Injecting fun into your language studies, far from being a distraction, is a powerful learning strategy. By doing things you enjoy, you can relax and engage more with the learning process. Studies show that a relaxed and happy mind helps us learn more effectively. Fun activities also boost learning because they motivate you to sit down and do the activities in the first place. And motivation is possibly the most important factor in language learning.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

ILA teachers and students volunteered with Brigade of Mercy to put together 100 thanksgiving grocery bags to feed 100 families of 6! A big thank you to Brigade of Mercy for all that they do for those in need.

CELEBRATING CULTURE!

NATIONAL SAUDI DAY

Saudi National Day commemorates the name changing of what was previously known as the Kingdom of Nejd and Hejaz to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.Our amazing Saudi students brought many traditional clothing and food with us to celebrate!

READY TO WORK WORKSHOP

Our lead instructor Debra Howe taught a "Ready for Work" Workshop at Loudon County Workforce Resource Center. Deb discussed effective communication and tips for succeeding in a new job. Interested in Career training ? Call us today

HOLIDAY PARTY AT ILA

It’s safe to say that ILA’s holiday party was a huge success!! We are so appreciative of our teachers, staff, and outstanding students - thank you to everyone that joined us in celebrating the holidays and the end of a great year!
